

Fragments Exercise

name:

Repair any fragment by attaching it to a nearby sentence or by rewriting it as a complete sentence. In some cases, you may have to make up a subject or a verb.

1. An aluminum, lightweight pan with a heat shielded handle, used for cooking.
2. Although his mother held his hand and told him to stay close.
3. Immigrants who deal with many obstacles, such as family separation, racial insults, language barriers, and lack of support.
4. Boot camp is the epitome of the banking concept of education. Drill sergeants commanding and privates obeying or facing punishment.
5. Mukherjee feels at home embracing the culture and country she has chosen to live in. Rather than holding on to a place and culture she is not a part of anymore.
6. The kid, Joey, sleeves dangling at his sides. His body slumping forward.
7. The banking system of education, which is a way to inhibit creativity in students and to make them lose their independent thought.
8. A teacher, for instance, who will have her own teaching method and students who will have their own learning styles.
9. Not merely a conveyor belt for children, but instead a place to explore their talents and begin to see their potential. This is what school should be.
10. The great thing about freewrites and rough drafts is that they aren't judged as finished work. Resulting in no limitations while writing.